

There are many phrases used as alternative ways of expressing the idea of something being easy, or doing something with ease. Look at the panel on difficulty to check other phrases with the opposite meaning.

something that is easy to do a breeze	a cakewalk ( US ) a cinch	a walkover easy-peasy	duck soup ( US ) a piece of cake	a pushover

an easy situation

be as easy as pie	be as easy as falling off a log be plain sailing	there's nothing to it be as easy as ABC	be downhill all the way be no hassle	be crystal clear be child's play	open-and-shut a soft option	second nature ### to do something with ease

breeze through	waltz through sail through	walk away with at your leisure

be at your ease

be on easy street	be at home with something have the life of Riley	be in clover