

Here some common phrases used to express one's like of someone or something are grouped together under their broad meanings.

liking someone or something a great deal be bowled over by take a shine to something have a weakness for take someone's breath away liking someone or something a little have a thing about/for have a soft spot for being suitable to one's tastes someone's cup of tea to someone's liking

suit someone down to the ground up someone's street