

If the word want is used too often in the same piece of writing, it can bore the reader. Try varying the verbs you use, choosing some of the synonyms listed below to help you.

wish for

covet

crave

desire

fancy

hanker for

hunger for

long (for)

pine for

thirst for

wish (for)

yearn (for)

need

be without

be deficient in

be in need of

call for

demand

lack

miss

need

require

want

WORD workshop

Instead of repeating want in the following advert, you might use some of the synonyms discussed opposite.

Do you ^{desire} ~~want~~ the perfect holiday? Do you ^{hanker after} ~~want~~ long sandy beaches and palm trees? Do you ^{long} ~~want~~ to relax and enjoy the sound of the sea? Do you ^{yearn} ~~want~~ to escape from the hustle and bustle of everyday life and people constantly ^{demanding} ~~wanting~~ your attention?

At Palm Tree Holidays we have just what you ^{wish for} ~~want~~. We offer luxury hotels in exotic locations where our staff can provide everything you ^{require} ~~want~~. You are one phone call away from paradise!